"Handwashing is the easiest way of preventing the spread of infection."

Do not wait for your hands to look dirty, there are many times during the day when hands need to be washed.

Wash your hands BEFORE preparing or eating food.

Wash your hands AFTER cleaning the baby's bottom or changing their nappies.