

To get long term benefit from Jengu, it is essential that the unit is regularly cleaned and maintained. This will ensure effective handwashing is a pleasurable experience. Clean supply water and soap should be replenished when required. For cleaning and maintenance, please use the following guidance:

Keep the area around Jengu clean, tidy and dry. This will create a better handwashing experience.